

JAPANESE LANGUAGE AND CULTURE MAJOR

The majors in French, Japanese and Spanish Language and Culture offer students opportunities to effectively develop cultural and linguistic abilities to function productively in the global, 21st century world in an array of fields where language and intercultural competencies are critical.

All department minors must take an appropriate 300 level class upon return to complete requirements. 20-22 credits are generally required for minors.

Japanese Language and Culture Track

The major and minor in Japanese Language and Culture focuses on developing proficiency in Japanese and the ability to communicate in a culturally appropriate fashion in various disciplines and social situations. The major requires a high level of language proficiency: generally three years of Japanese, or equivalent level of proficiency (ACTFL Intermediate High). Therefore, a year of study at a Linfield approved program in either Tokyo or Kyoto, typically during the third year, is necessary to complete the major unless student has significant prior experience with the language. Language experience is assessed through placement exam and Oral Proficiency Interview. Early planning is key to completing this major. Please consult with Japanese faculty early in the process, before choosing a study abroad site.

- Study abroad for one year in a Linfield approved program in Japan is normally required.

- Up to 20 credits (in addition to ABROAD PORTFOLIO (GLCS 380)) from study abroad may be applied toward the major.
- Courses taken abroad must be related to Japanese literature, culture, and language, and chosen in consultation with Linfield advisor and approved by the Department Chair
- One cultural study course on campus: JAPANESE CULTURE TODAY (GLJP 240) or other appropriate course. Highly recommended.
- Other appropriate GLCS courses, (as approved by the Department Chair).

By departmental invitation, students may write a senior thesis: SENIOR THESIS (GLCS 490) (2 credits).

Study Abroad

Because students take courses in the host language, they should complete course work up to the 202 level before undertaking foreign study. Students must consult with the Japanese faculty early in the process, before choosing a study abroad site.

Student Learning Outcomes
