REFUND POLICIES

Refunds - 10-week Accelerated Programs

Official withdrawals must be made using the online add/drop form, and are calculated by the date of submission. Tuition and the online course fee will be refunded based on the dates and percentages below. The tuition refund is determined by the date the student notifies the university in writing in accordance with the university withdrawal procedures of his or her decision to withdraw, not by the date the student stops attending classes. Certain fees shall be exempt from this refund policy. These fees include various course-related fees (see Refunds: Various Course-Related Fees), and any other fees deemed appropriate by the university.

Term/Year	Term Dates	100%	75%	50%	25%
Fall 2023	09/11/23 - 11/17/23	09/15/23	09/22/23	09/29/23	10/06/23
Winter 2024	01/08/24 - 03/15/24	01/12/24	01/19/24	01/26/24	02/01/24
Spring 2024	04/01/24 - 06/07/24	04/05/24	04/12/24	04/19/24	04/26/24
Summer 2024	06/24/24 - 08/30/24	06/28/24	07/05/24	07/12/24	07/19/24

There will be no tuition refunds after these dates. The university will return federal aid to the aid programs in accordance with the federal pro-rata policy, which may affect the final account balance for which the student is responsible. Cancellation or adjustment of financial aid may also affect the final account balance for which the student is responsible.

REFUNDS: VARIOUS COURSE-RELATED FEES FOR DROPS AND WITHDRAWALS DURING A SEMESTER

Refunds for various course-related fees will be issued if notified in writing on or before:

- The first day of the semester/term: 100% Refund
- The last day to enroll in a course: 50% Refund

There will be no tuition refunds after these dates. The university will return federal aid to the aid programs in accordance with the federal pro-rata policy, which may affect the final account balance for which the student is responsible. Cancellation or adjustment of financial aid may also affect the final account balance for which the student is responsible.
